The Huntsman Program is a fascinating community. The community of intellectual students and insightful conversations has given me great skills and confidence in communicating and professionally presenting.

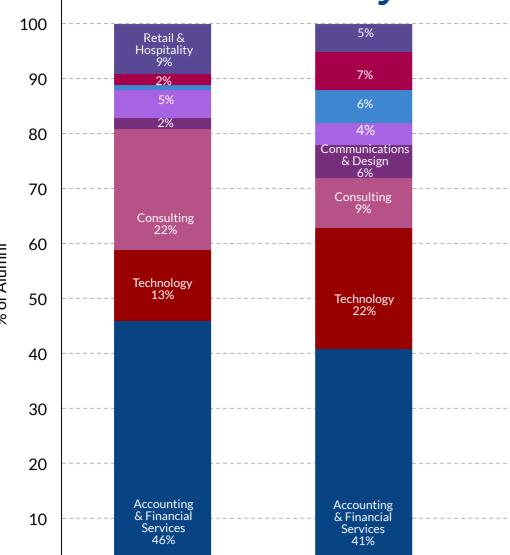

The skills that the program taught me continue to be important in future career opportunities. Without my Huntsman experience I would not have been selected for multiple international experiences that contributed prepare you for success? The deep bonds and lasting friendships that resulted from the residential component of the program are also something I did not expect when I applied but probably the aspect for which I am most grateful 17+ years later.
