*Other: Summer classes, language immersion

SVMM is an NGO that is focused on aiding tribal development in the local areas of Agali, Attapadi, and some other hubs across the state of Kerala. As an intern, I was able to work directly on projects for the duration of my stay.

-- Rising Sophomore

I did a short term Russian language immersion/study program in Kyrgyzstan with the American University of Central Asia and American Councils as a part of a NSLI-Y Alumni Travel Program.

-- Rising Junior

I also did a Penn summer course online.

-- Rising Sophomore

The Frederick Douglass Global Fellowship was a wonderful opportunity to combine my joint interest in International Relations & Political Science in a comparative study of social activists around the globe.
